Dear Madam,

The purpose of this correspondence is to discuss the continued utilization of Estate Grange, along with its main house, as a captivating setting for an upcoming television production. Upon the discovery of this remarkable property by our production team, our desire is to film interviews, host promotional events associated with the show, and engage in various activities on the premises in the near future.

Estate Grange stands as an exquisite representation of a colonial residence, exuding a wealth of Crucian heritage and charm. We are enthusiastic about the prospect of ongoing usage and are committed to assisting in enhancing its visibility among a broader audience.

Best Regards,

Patrice Ablack
