

EMBRACE. EMPOWER. EXPAND.

The Honorable Carla J. Joseph
Legislative Secretary
35th Legislator of the Virgin Islands

Dear Secretary Joseph,

Writing a testimonial for Rev. Dr. William A. Industrious is an honor. His name aptly reflects his unwavering commitment and tireless work in ministry. To many, including myself, he is not just a pastor but a spiritual grandfather, a beacon of wisdom whose guidance is both a compass and a comfort in the journey of faith.

Rev. Dr. Industrious has been an integral part of my spiritual journey. His vast experience and deep understanding of the Word have been instrumental in my development as a minister. His nurturing approach to leadership is reminiscent of a grandfather's embrace—it is warm, encouraging, and empowering. His dedication to God's work has been nothing short of inspiring.

The willingness of his ministry to embrace me has been an important milestone in my life. It is a gesture that speaks volumes of his character. In a world where competition often overshadows camaraderie, Dr. Industrious stands out as a pillar of support and a mentor who genuinely rejoices in the success of others.

I celebrate Dr. Industrious not just for his achievements and the accolades he has rightly earned, but for his selfless and steadfast contribution to the lives he touches. His footprint in the spiritual landscape is deep and enduring, and the ripple effects of his ministry reach far and wide.

May his legacy continue to flourish as he reaches this remarkable milestone. His commitment to serving God and his people is a testament to a life well-lived for a higher calling. Thank you, Rev. Dr. Industrious, for all that you are and all that you do. Your spiritual lineage will continue to bear fruit for generations to come.

Respectfully,

Rev. Dr. Joseline Rey Sutton
Apostle of The Life Church International
