Re: Judicial appointment of Yvette D. Ross-Edwards, Esq.

Dear Senator Capehart:

It is with great pleasure that I write to you in support of Attorney Ross-Edwards's possible appointment to the Superior Court bench.

I have interacted with Attorney Ross-Edwards in private practice for almost thirty years as well as a member of the Virgin Islands Bar Association's Ethics & Grievance Committee on which we both served. During that time, Attorney Ross-Edwards has always conducted herself as a respectable, honest and personable individual. Her reputation in the community is outstanding.

Attorney Ross-Edwards has a thorough understanding and respect for the rule of law. Over the years, she has exhibited an acute attention to detail coupled with a reverence for the letter and spirit of the law. As is the nature of our profession, I didn't always agree with her positions taken on behalf of her clients, but I've always had the utmost respect for her zealous representation of her clients.

Attorney Ross-Edwards is a very experienced and well-rounded lawyer. She possesses a thorough knowledge of the procedural rules as well as motion and trial practice. I have no reservation in supporting her appointment.

Very truly yours,

GRONER & GREY, P.C.
