Dear Julian:

I am most pleased that you are being considered for confirmation as a member of the Virgin Islands Taxicab Commission. Having witnessed firsthand your years of public service, including your tenure at the Department of Health, Division of Mental Health, Alcoholism, and Drug Dependency, I am confident of your suitability for this new challenge.

Be assured that I am among those most supportive of your nomination, and that I will lend further testimony to your qualifications when required. I hope that this correspondence will serve to advance your professional interests in any pursuit, as I hold your professionalism and integrity in high regard.

May good fortune accompany you during the upcoming process, so that the Virgin Islands community will continue to benefit from your service and dedication.

Yours Truly,
