

Highlights of career: Alfred Lee Anduze, MD

- 1) Education: Valedictorian 8th grade, 12th grade (International),
Honors University BA, Medical School top three
- 2) First native residency trained certified Ophthalmologist in the Virgin Islands. 1978
- 3) Founder and 3rd President of the Ophthalmological Society of the West Indies (OSWI) an organization of physicians and providers from all countries of the Caribbean (started in 1991)
- 4) Anduze Pterygium Surgery Technique, that significantly reduced pterygium recurrence worldwide, Set up throughout the Caribbean, at Bascom Palmer Eye Institute with University of Florida, throughout Europe from Hungary, Switzerland to France and Spain.. , North Africa and the Middle East.
- 5) Establishment of a Clinic for treatment of Pterygium in Nevis 1998- 2003
- 6) Publications: most medical journal articles on Ophthalmology in the Caribbean;
currently cited daily for articles and textbook on Pterygium management and surgical technique; Health Books published (anduzebooks.com); 10
- 7) Medical Lectures in 32 countries
- 8) Ability to function and interact with patients and communities in 5 languages, 80 countries....