Good morning...

I just read the details of this business venture outlined in today's Tradewinds. I've known these petitioners for decades. I've recommended Courtesy car rental to my guests because of their honesty, great communication skills and excellent customer service.

I have no doubt that they will succeed in this venture because of these qualities demonstrated regularly.

They are very responsible people...and I believe they have done their due diligence in planning and thinking through a great business venture that can benefit many residence on St. John.

I wish them the very best and hope they get support from both the community and DPR.

Thank you for making public input available.

SINCERELY,

Bonny Corbeil,

40 plus year STJ Resident.
